LADIES' SESSIONS

Give Your Love a Voice

Naomi Widmer realizes that the desire to be loved and understood is one of our deepest emotional needs. In this light-hearted session, you will not only learn to speak your loved one's love language, but you will also be encouraged to know and embrace the message of grace and unconditional love in understanding that God speaks your love language. "...Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee."

Love Thy Neighborhood

Amy Souza and Angela Morrow are teaming up with a fun and exciting session for those who work with children and other outreach ministries. There will be some great 'hands on' teaching for those involved in children's ministries, including those who diligently work on bus routes each week bringing young people to Sunday School. These ladies are brimming with ideas for program planning with a goal toward winning families to Christ.

1 Corinthians 13:8

Unfailing Love

Carol Trahan was widowed as a young mother with three children. Throughout the years, the Lord has showed Himself mighty, revealing His amazing grace and unfailing love to her and her family. God brought her to brokenness and to the place of complete dependence on Him. Carol will tell her story for the glory of God with a prayer that other ladies will come to know Him intimately and serve Him wholeheartedly.

The Journey Back To My First Love

Carol will have us turn in our Bibles to Revelation 2:4 where Jesus said to the church at Ephesus "...I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love." Before we can make that journey back to our first love, Carol will help us identify what caused us to leave, show us what hinders us from getting back, and lead us through the steps we must take to return to an intimate walk with God.

Unconditional Love is a Choice

Jackie Clayton believes that the phrase 'unconditional love' applies to both God's love for us and the love a soul winner must have to reach the lost. The fascinating testimonies you will hear will encourage you to trust the power of God's Word to change a life.
