PRINT SHOP CONSTRUCTION MISSION TRIP CUAUHTÉMOC, CHIHUAHUA, MEXICO

Last week Iglesia Biblica Bautista (Bible Baptist Church) here in Cuauhtémoc, Chihuahua, Mexico, had the privilege of hosting a group of volunteer workers to help us in a new addition to our church. They flew into Mexico with Wings As Eagles and came ready to work.

They enthusiastically lifted by hand hundreds of cement blocks to the second level and brought up many loads of sand/gravel mix and 70 pound sacks of mortar. They learned how to mix all of that with water, Mexican style, on the floor. Brother David Eldridge was kept supplied with mortar to lay all of the block for the walls at a rate of one block every 45 seconds. The group also learned how to weave long lengths of heavy reinforcing rod together for structural support.

Their desire to serve the Lord was a great encouragement to our church members. During testimony times in our recent services, many gave thanks to the Lord for sending the group and for the great fellowship in spite of the language barrier.

Please come back again soon, Wings As Eagles!

Greetings from Wings As Eagles,

I am overjoyed by the last trip we took to Cuauhtémoc, Mexico. We took a group of eight hard-working folks to visit missionaries Warren and Joanne Klenk and Pastor Juan Montaña. It was an honor to work alongside our pilot Terry Rushing, our bricklayer Dave Eldridge, our interpreter Juan Davalos, as well as Matthew Riley, Joseph Stewart, Timothy Wilhite, and Rachel Halbersma. The Lord truly brought the perfect team together for this building project. Before the trip ever started, the devil worked hard to prevent its success. The devil fought a few of the members with health issues and tried to discourage others from going. Not only that, but we expected bad weather all week due to a hurricane in the Pacific Ocean. However, praise the Lord, everything worked out perfectly in the end, I am sure because of many of your prayers. We truly felt the prayers of the saints while on this trip.

The purpose of this trip was to help the church in Cuauhtémoc continue construction of a 30 x 40 foot addition to their print shop. On our first day of work, Saturday, we were able to get one 30 foot cement wall almost completely laid. We figured out each team member's niche for the project and worked well together. On Sunday we had wonderful services, with Juan Davalos preaching in the morning and Terry Rushing in the evening. Many decisions were made. On Monday we were joined by a group of six men from Missionary Will Klassen's church, which is just a few miles away in Rubio, Mexico. We were able to lay the majority of the 40 foot wall, demolish a wall in the back of the church to help expand the auditorium, and put together the rebar frames for the wall headers. Tuesday we finished both the 40 foot wall and the first 30 foot wall and poured the support beams for the first wall. Wednesday we laid most of the second 30 foot wall, poured the header and support beams for the 40 foot wall, and completed the brick laying for the last wall. I preached the Wednesday night service. On our last day of work we laid the gable block for the roof and poured the support beams and header for the last wall. By the Lord's strength we were able to complete our part of the building project. It was a blessing to see men and women working hard each day for the Lord.

The Lord really did bless this trip. As we worked, many times rain clouds loomed in the distance, and many times God had the rain skirt around us. On one occasion a large rain cloud was headed our way. We prayed, and then watched as the rain cloud split in two and went on either side of the building. It was also a great blessing to watch our interpreter as he witnessed in Spanish to the hotel staff where we were staying. He was able to lead two of the young men to the Lord.

On our way home we stopped in El Paso, Texas, for the first night of a missions conference at Victory Baptist Church. It was a blessing to hear from Brother Rushing again and to preach alongside Pastor Dave Webster from Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Canada.

Thank you all for your financial support and your prayer support. We would not be able to serve God in this capacity without your faithful help.
