Report on Wings Mission Trip to Quebec, Canada

Recently the Lord provided me an opportunity to serve with the Wings As Eagles ministry. I was able to join Terry Rushing and Dave Borlee in Sept-Îles, Québec, Canada. We joined missionary Wes Burns and his family to assist in the annual inspection of their Cessna 172N aircraft. This was a very profitable and eye-opening experience. I was able to experience a totally different culture and meet wonderful Christians. I was able to better understand the difficulty of and yet the great need for sharing the gospel in that part of the world. Sept-Îles, where we performed the inspection, is not as isolated as the Burns' home in Havre-Saint-Pierre, yet there are many surrounding villages which are difficult to reach. Having this aircraft that the Lord provided is vital to Brother Wes spreading God's word in this part of Quebec. I appreciate being able to serve the Lord in this capacity and will keep the Burns family in my prayers as they venture out to spread the Word. - Josh Seidel

Wings Family Maintenance and Encouragement

In order for the Wings ministry to function well, we have to make sure that the inner workings of the ministry are healthy. Our Wings missionaries lead very busy lives. If we did not take time to meet together once in a while, we could easily lose track of each other, and it would be harder for us to have a single-minded spirit as we work together for the cause of Christ. The Wings men meet together to coordinate new trips, talk about ministry ideas and ministry vision, and have weekly prayer meetings. The ladies get together as well to plan and allow their hearts to become knit together. We often include our Wings office staff and volunteers in our gatherings. Over the last few years we have been able to enjoy a Christmas party together in the new year. Last year we went bowling and had a pizza dinner. This year we all came together and enjoyed a delicious potluck meal, a gingerbread house contest, and a great game for both the adults and children. Terry gave a devotional to encourage each of us to remember that God is in control and will supply all that we need. We ended the night by celebrating some birthdays, as well as Bob and Juanita's 60th wedding anniversary. I think we all appreciated the fellowship together and left the gathering happy, refreshed, and full of sugar! 😊 Please keep our Wings missionaries, staff, and volunteers in prayer. We pray that each of us will grow in the Lord in the year ahead so that we can be used of God to our greatest potential. We are each only sinners saved by God's amazing grace! Thank you for supporting Wings As Eagles through your prayers and finances!

Canada Trip Report from David Borlee

My name is Dave Borlee, and I am an aircraft mechanic. The word hands is used 439 times in scripture, and only a handful of times is it used in positive instruction. I do not consider myself a thief, but Ephesians 4:28 says, "Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth." One of the things that the Lord has allowed me to do in the Wings ministry is to work with my hands. One way I am able to use my hands is by helping the missionary family of Wesley and Rebecca Burns and their children Kelsey and Kenan in Sept-Îles, Quebec, Canada. This was my second trip to Quebec to serve with the Burns family. They use a Cessna 172 aircraft to fly into remote areas along the Lower North Shore of the Saint Lawrence Seaway. We were able to complete his annual inspection in just a few days so that he can continue using the aircraft for the purpose of evangelizing the lost. I am very thankful that the Lord has allowed me to use my hands for his service. (See more pictures on Wings' website.)

Serving God Is a Privilege

Canadian evangelist Jacob Giesbrecht recently wrote, "I was meditating the other day on what kind of people God uses to serve Him, and it became clear to me that He uses normal people, but not people who live normal lives. I am often tempted to experience a bit of normality, but I know that it would have to come at the expense of serving my Saviour." Indeed serving Christ is so much more than a normal job and is not a burdensome obligation. It is a privilege to carry the gospel of Jesus to the world, and this privilege is available to each believer, every normal person, that follows Christ and denies himself of what the world would consider a normal life. "And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it."
